DETAILED ACTION

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: page 3 of the specification as amended on 07/06/2004, includes references to 3 provisional cases being abandoned. Provisional cases do not go abandoned, so no such reference is warranted.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 29, 33, 39 and 44 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. These claims include size ranges not specifically spelled out in the specification and do not have any significance associated with these ranges.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 25-43 and 45-46 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Murphy et al (USPGpub 2002/0172705). Murphy et al discloses a composition comprising electroprocessed collagen [0033] comprising a repeated banding pattern, wherein the repeated banding pattern occurs at a spacing of about 65 nm to about 67 nm [0022]. The limitation of electroprocessed is a process limitation that need not be met since the composition is met by Murphy et al. However, Murphy et al discloses that the cell growth surface maybe electrostatically charged [0034] and that the composition is completely synthesized by cells (electrochemical entities), so the collagen produced can be categorized as electroprocessed.

With regards to claim 29, Figure 3B shows composition of Murphy et al including fully formed endogenous collagen fibers [0149]. Since, the composition of Murphy et al includes both type I and type III collagen, it follows that the fiber would be on the order of .2-20 microns which is the normal size range of type I and type III collagen fibers.

With regards to claim 32, the cell-matrix constructs (part of the composition) are supplemented with neutral polymer [0057].

With regards to claim 33, Murphy et al discloses a composition comprising electroprocessed collagen in a matrix [0033, collagen, cells and cell-matrix construct], the matrix comprising a pore size in a range of about 0.2 microns to about 5.3 microns [0035].

With regards to claim 36, see [0033] (elastin, etc...).

With regards to claim 37, two types of collagen [0022].

Art Unit: 3738

With regards to claim 38, the cell-matrix constructs (part of the composition) are supplemented with neutral polymer [0057].

With regards to claim 39, see [0063] (60-120 microns).

With regards to claim 40, Murphy et al discloses a composition comprising electroprocessed collagen [0033] comprising a blend of at least two types of collagen [0022].

With regards to claim 42, see [0057] (natural collagen produced by cells and procollagen).

With regards to claim 43, the cell-matrix constructs (part of the composition) are supplemented with neutral polymer [0057].

With regards to claim 46, combinations of collagens [0033].

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to new claims 25-46 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
